Predictions Upset as the Campions Bow in Big Show Ring.

MRS. ALLAIRE FOILS HORSE CHANGELING BETTY, Listed as High-half Prevet To Be Six Bravious Linear Development of the Six Bravious Linear Linear Development of the Six Bravious Linear Linear Development of the Six Bravious Linear Li form together with an inch in height which she has on Model, gave her with she has on Model, gave her though advantage to justify the judge's ward in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for hackneys over 14.2. While Mr. Graham's action caused in the class for been differed to be that he knew walking around the arena were Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Charles A. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Was walking around the arena were Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Charles A. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Was walking around the arena were Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Charles A. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Was walking around the arena were Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cameron. General Charles P. Roe, Mrs. Pittsburgh.

The the swards for these two classes, tealing $1.200, were the greatest purse ever awarded for two classes, any horse show in this country.

Winnewood, the splendid chestnut radies of the Delchester Farms Stud, were the Callenge Cup for the best hazing stallion in the show, but it was his greem, George Gibbon, who did the work by and down the tanbark George tugged and pulled the spirited state to improve the interests of the English type of roadster to make him show his manners with a tremendous hold on Wynnewood treed in province and breeders in the United States to improve the interests of the English type of roadster to make him show in this country.

Hamilton Farm's noted Irvington lack the halter.

Hamilton Farm's noted Irvington lack pearls and diamonds. Other costumes were:

Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite, suit of black velvet, with touches of white; small hat of black velvet.
Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, tailored suit of black cloth, with muff and collar of gray fox; large hat of black felt trimmed with green wings.
Miss Maude G. Shepherd, walking suit of gray striped cloth, with muff and collar of white fox; small hat of white fox with one long white wing at the back.

Mrs. Montaigu La Montagne, suit of felt with wings.

Mrs. H. de Berkeley Parsons, costume of black cloth, with muff of gray fox; small hat of black felt trimmed with large bows of Belgian blue velvet.

Mrs. Gouverne r Kortright, costume of black, with touches of white; small

Mrs. Gouverne'r Kortright, costune of black, with touches of white; small hat of dark blue felt.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bryce Wing made their first appearance at the show late in the evening. They were the guests of Hildreth K. Bloodgood and J. Macy Willets. Mr. Wing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuart Wing, sat just back of them. Mr. and Mrs. Wing, who were married in St. James's Church last week, have just returned from their wedding trip. Mrs. Wing was Miss. Marie Tailer. Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Padelford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Ayres occupied one of the arena boxes. In another box were Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas. Mrs. Henry Pierpont Perry and Williams P. Burden.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric S. Winston were with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Freilinghuysen. Among others seen during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. F. Skiddy von Stade, Miss Helen Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Carley Harrifithehook, Mrs. Birdseye B. Lewis, Charles C. and Mrs. Dwight Barclay, William A. ScotTiesee Towele

Hazard, Dr. and Mrs. William S. Ston and L. Stuart Wing, jr.

Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt

Elected Life Member

Broadway and 33d Street

GIMBELS

Store Opens 8:30 Closes at 6

"Progress" Absolute Supremacy Is, Once for All, PROVED In Our Men's Winter Overcoats and Suits

VEARS of untiring effort-all the resources that stand back of our three great stores-every iota of our prestige for five years have been directed toward securing the BEST MEN'S CLOTHING VALUES IN NEW YORK.

Overcoats and Suits, bought at this great store or that by our experts for purposes of comparison, lie on our tables today.

"Here," says our Clothing chief, "is PROOF POSI-TIVE. These are good, but ours are BETTER."

He points to this evidence of superiority in fabric, to that touch of extra finish under the collar, or in the buttonholes, or along the edges.

"There," says he, "is the show-down—the answer to the claims of the many stores that sell 'the best.''

AS WE have done, so we ask YOU to do. COMPARE! We are willing to abide by your decision, for comparison will instantly show, even to the layman, exactly wherein GIMBEL Clothing Supremacy exists.

GIMBELS-Fourth Floor

The Continental Army

Col. W. C. Church, for fifty years the editor of the Army and Navy Journal, has some frank statements to make in Sunday's Tribune about the Continental Army of 400,000, a feature of President Wilson's defence policy. He tells why he believes such a system would be hopelessly inadequate and asks some pointed questions about the conduct of the Department of War.

You who are interested in adequate preparedness will find Col. Church's talk illuminating -alarmingly so. It is an article you will not want to miss, so tell your newsdealer to-day that you want a Tribune Sunday.

The Sunday Tribune

First to Last-The Truth: News-Editorials-Advertisements

Brill Brothers Big Birthday Bargains

In Men's, Young Men's & Boys'

Winter Overcoats and Suits

Sale Commences To-Morrow Morning

Mrs. Montaigu La Montagne, suit of Indian red rough cloth, collar and must of blue fox; small hat of brown felt trimmed with brown wings.

Mrs. Frederic Neilson, tailored suit of black rough goods, with a narrow pencil stripe of white; tall hat of black felt trimmed with small white wings.

Mrs. Gustav J. S. White, suit of black velvet, with must and custs of skenk fur; small black velvet hat.

Mrs. W. Russell Grace, costume of black cloth, over which she wore a long coat of black cloth with wide collar of gray fox; small hat of gray velour. Miss Hilda Holmes, tailored suit of After quality it's the number obacco brown frieze; small hat of hoese in a roll of toilet paper brown velvet.
Miss Lota Robinson, walking suit of black cloth with touches of white, and gardenias at the corsage; hat of brown of sheets in a roll of toilet paper that measures its value. The size of a roll or the number of rolls for a quarter do not indi-